FIRST JOB READINESS CHECKLIST

Prepare for the transition from education to employment

Practical guidance • Clear steps • Honest representation

Use this checklist to prepare for a first job. Employer requirements and legal obligations vary by location and role.

Documents and onboarding

- I know which documents the verified employer requires and how to submit them securely.
- I have reviewed the written offer and start-date instructions.
- I understand onboarding, identity checks and any role-specific training requirements.

Practical preparation

- I know the work location or remote setup, start time and contact person.
- I understand expected working hours, attendance and communication channels.
- I have planned transport, equipment and other practical needs.

Professional habits

- I can introduce myself and explain my role and learning goals.
- I know how to ask for clarification, feedback and help.
- I understand confidentiality, information security and workplace conduct expectations.

First-month plan

- I have identified key responsibilities and questions to clarify.
- I will track agreed tasks and deadlines.
- I will request feedback and review progress with my manager.

Key takeaways

- Confirm important terms and instructions in writing.
- Ask questions rather than guessing.
- Protect employer, colleague and customer information.

Important: This is general career-development information, not a guarantee of employment or a substitute for employer-specific instructions or qualified legal advice. Verify role-specific and location-specific requirements independently.
