Refund and Cancellation Fee Guide

Help students review cancellation rules and request refunds through official procedures.

Resource category: Fee Guides	Format: Printable guidance PDF

Guide

Use this guide as a planning framework. Requirements differ by institution, programme, country, applicant category, and intake. Keep a record of the official source and the date you checked it.

Find the governing policy

- Read the current written refund and cancellation policy for the exact programme and intake.
- Identify which authority's rules apply and the effective date.
- Check differences between application fees, deposits, tuition, hostel, and other charges.

Record key dates

- Note withdrawal deadline, cancellation submission method, and required evidence.
- Check whether the refund amount changes by date or admission stage.
- Keep copies of withdrawal requests, acknowledgements, and receipts.

Submit and track

- Use the official channel and request written acknowledgement.
- Record reference number, expected timeline, and contact details.
- Escalate through the published grievance process if necessary.

Important caution

- This guide is not a statement of any institution's current refund entitlement.
- Verify the applicable rules before making a decision or relying on a refund estimate.
