Country Selection Guide

A structured way to compare study destinations using verifiable criteria.

Resource category: Study Abroad	Format: Printable guidance PDF

Guide

Use this guide as a planning framework. Requirements differ by institution, programme, country, applicant category, and intake. Keep a record of the official source and the date you checked it.

Academic fit

- Check suitable programmes, teaching language, duration, and academic entry requirements.
- Verify institution and programme recognition through official sources.

Affordability

- Estimate tuition, housing, food, transport, insurance, and travel for the full study period.
- Check available scholarships and realistic funding evidence requirements.

Immigration and work

- Review current official student visa or permit rules.
- Verify student work limits and post-study options through government sources; do not rely on informal summaries.

Daily life

- Research accommodation, climate, transport, accessibility, healthcare, and community support.
- Consult current official travel and safety advice.
